

FROM NIGHT TILL MORN

A tune found in the Welch manuscript (Sussex, 1800) and in William Litten's copybook manuscript (1800-1802). Although this is something of a session favourite throughout the land it was just 'one of those tunes' until the new album from Matt Quinn and Owen Woods landed on the doormat. Their version of the tune is simply stunning – so good in fact that the tune jumped right to the top of the list.
